

FOUNDATIONS OF LEADERSHIP

FEATURING Jane Buchan CEO of Pacific Alternative Asset Management Company

From A to B: Transitioning from Academia to Business Friday, October 18, 2013 from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m.

This workshop will de-mystify the transition from academia to the business world. As a former Dartmouth professor turned hedge fund CEO, Jane Buchan will clarify the value of a graduate degree beyond the ivory tower. Businesses need independent, critical and creative thinking skills. Find out what additional skills you need to move from the classroom to the business world. The two worlds are closer than you think.

Jane Buchan is the CEO of Pacific Alternative Asset Management Company (PAAMCO). Jane left her position as a professor at Dartmouth University to enter JP Morgan's Capital Markets Group. With numerous publications in investment strategies, Jane has blended academic excellence with a powerful business career. She provides a professor's view of career opportunities beyond academia.

LOCATION: Graduate Resource Center (GRC), 3100 Gateway Study Center

The Foundations of Leadership distinguished speaker series connects graduate students and postdoctoral scholars with a range of leaders from corporations, nonprofits, government, and higher education. These leaders demonstrate the importance of expanded skill development and career planning to compete in the changing job market. Through these opportunities, graduate students and postdoctoral scholars will learn how these leaders have addressed leadership challenges, identify skills that enhance career success, and explore leadership in multiple capacities.
