

March is Professional Development Month at the Center for Graduate and Professional Students and Postdoctoral Scholars

"Negotiating a Non-Academic Job Offer"

March 6th, 2009

Career Center Training Room

3:00pm-4:30pm

Congratulations you got the job, now what? Do you take what they offer, ask for more, what can you ask for? Come learn how to get the best offer for you. Sponsored by the UCI Career Center.

"The Gender Chip Project"

March 11, 2009

Call T2 1100 Auditorium

12:00 pm-1:30 pm & 4:00 pm-5:30 pm

This film documents the experiences of young women training for a career in STEM fields at Ohio State University.

(Sponsored by the UCI ADVANCE Program). RSVP to aacheng@uci.edu.

"Planning Successfully for Your First Postdoc Position"

March 16, 2009

Student Center Balboa Room "B"

3:00pm-4:00pm

Thinking About A Postdoc Position? This workshop will provide an opportunity for interested graduate students to find out more about the postdoctoral scholar position and what steps to take to find the right opportunity. The session will be presented by a panel of current postdocs who will present their insights and personal experiences. Panelist: Dr. Althea Capul, Dr. Yvonne Klaue, and Dr. Pedro-Aldofo Sequeira. RSVP to wzeller@uci.edu

"Planning Successfully for Your First Faculty Appointment"

Student Center Balboa Room "B"

March 18, 2009

10:30am-12pm

This workshop will provide graduate students with an opportunity to learn "best practices" on how to successfully move into your first faculty appointment. A panel of newly-hired UCI faculty will present their insights and personal experiences. Panelists: Dr. James Jones, Assistant Professor in the Department of Informatics; Dr. Angela Lukowski, Assistant Professor in the School of Social Ecology; and Dr. Ana Rosas, Assistant Professor in Chicano/Latino Studies.

Refreshments will be served. RSVP to wzeller@uci.edu