

November is International Month at the Center for Graduate and Professional Students and Post Doctoral Scholars

Monday November 17, 2008 | 11:00 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.

Workshop: International Research Opportunities for Graduate Students

This program is open to all graduate students interested in pursuing International research opportunities. A panel presentation by faculty, graduate students and post doctoral scholars will be followed by discussion and questions. Pizza and refreshments will be provided. Please RSVP to wzeller@uci.edu.

Hosted by: The Center for Graduate & Professional Students & Post Doctoral Scholars

Location: Cross Cultural Center Ring Room (Building # 103 on the UCI campus map).

Tuesday, November 18, 2008 | 2:00 p.m. – 3:00 p.m.

Workshop: Study Abroad Opportunities for Graduate Students

An open discussion focused on providing ideas to pursue international study opportunities for students who have an interest in studying abroad, or in other international opportunities. Please RSVP to wzeller@uci.edu.

Hosted by: The Center for Graduate & Professional Students & Post Doctoral Scholars

Location: Center for International Education Conference Room 1010 (Building # 105 on the UCI campus map).

Wednesday, November 19, 2008 | 2:00 p.m. – 3:00 p.m.

Workshop: U.S. Idioms

An interactive Workshop introducing non-native English speakers to some commonly used idioms in American English.

Hosted by: The Center for Graduate & Professional Students & Post Doctoral Scholars

Location: 4201 Natural Sciences II (Building # 402 on the UCI campus map).

Wednesday, November 19, 2008 | 3:00 p.m. – 5:00 p.m.

Workshop: International Post Doc Research Poster Session

Hosted by: International Center/ International Education Week

Location: International Center Lobby, 500 E. Peltason Drive, (Building # 6 on the UCI campus map).